

"We are a Union, and the loyalty of the Union must come before anything and everyone else. For if we honor that commitment, we will never be vanquished-but if we falter in that loyalty we will all be condemned."

Unknown

Also,

"The strength of a Union, like the strength of an Army, is in its loyalty to each other"

Unknown