CON ED UNION FILES UNFAIR LABOR PRACTICE CHARGE

At approximately 1 PM on Thursday, June 26, 2008, Utility Workers Union of America, AFL-CIO filed an Unfair Labor Practice charge with the National Labor Relations Board. In that charge, the Union noted that Con Edison is bargaining in bad faith in its negotiations for a new collective bargaining agreement.

With less than two days before the expiration of the contract, Con Edison has not even told the Union its wage offer and has made very little effort to resolve the host of other issues which the Union has raised and tried to discuss. It remains apparent to the Union that Con Edison is trying to provoke a labor dispute.
